

US

OCTOBER 17, 1988 VOLUME 3 NUMBER 87 $1.75/£1.50

Kevin Costner

FOR 1988
THE SEXY

Cybill Shepherd

Patrick Swayze

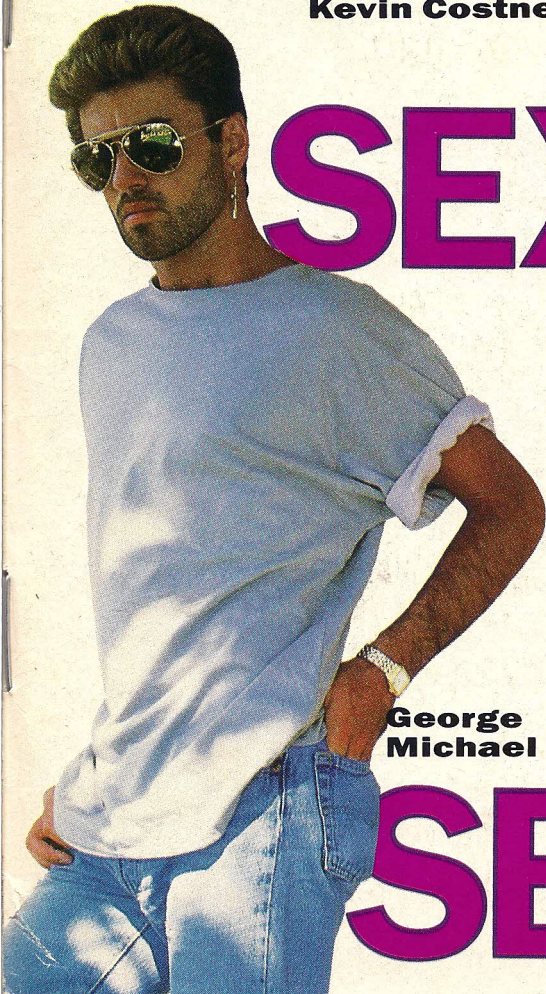

SEXIER

Jennifer Grey

George Michael

SEXIEST!

the little scar on his cheek

Rob Lowe

that keeps him from utter perfection. One thing he can't hide is his predilection for fabulous females. Liaisons with leading ladies are not unheard of, and he has managed to squeeze in time with civilians as disparate as Fawn Hall and Princess Stephanie of Monaco. We're eager to get all the dirt in an autobiography, but since he's only 24, it'll be a long wait. Message to Rob: Hang loose. Nobody doubts your masculinity. Go ahead and look perfect.

J. BENARACH/SIPA

7

It's done with fruits, vegetables and whole grains, tennis and ballet, expert makeup and one of the best steady jobs in the business. The smashing Donna Mills, who plays conniving Abby on Knots Landing, has said of her superbly successful efforts at self-preservation: "If you're willing to make that effort, the rewards are great."

Donna Mills

Indeed. On TV, she's sultry, stylish and scheming — she brings out the bad girl in all of us. Offscreen, at 44, the never-wed actress seems to like to be alone. Or maybe she's just playing hard to get. As for her ideas on sexiness:

SEXIEST MOVIE: Body Heat

DATE: dinner at Santa Monica's Chinois on Main, and a walk on the beach

DESIGNER: Bob Mackie

FOOD: crème caramel

MAKE-OUT SPOT: Mulholland Drive

BOOK: The Unbearable Lightness of Being

PICK-UP LINE: no line, "just a look"

SONG: "In the Air Tonight," Phil Collins

NIGHT WEAR: his shirt

DRINK: Cakebread Cellars Chardonnay